Only use genuine Bulldog & Volvo Oil

Why? Purchasing your oil from an alternate source is risky. Manufacturer requirements are in place for a reason – to protect your investment. Many alternate lubricant suppliers do not meet manufacturer specifications, therefore, putting you and your equipment investment at risk. Bulldog and Volvo lubricants are premium quality lubricants and meet or EXCEED manufacturer requirements for today's heavy duty truck engines and components.

Before you buy, check out our savings and contact your local Bruckner's Parts or Service Representative to discuss your specific needs and we'll do our best to provide the products and service you need at a price you can afford.
